

Dhaka Varsity Day tomorrow

The sixth "Dhaka University Day" will be observed on March 31, reports BSS.

The formal inauguration of the day will take place at 8-30 a.m. with combined parade by BNCC, rangers and rovers at the green lawn adjacent (west) to the arts building of the University.

National Professor Dr. Nurul Islam will be the chief guest at the inaugural ceremony which will be presided over by Professor Abdul Mannan, Vice-Chancellor of the University. Mr. Sultan Mohammad Mansur Ahmed and Mr. Md. Mustaque Hossain, Vice President and General Secretary respectively of DUCSU will address the function.

An elaborate day-long programme has been chalked out to observe the day which includes combined parade, open air drama, recitation, cultural functions, exhibitions of photographs, handicrafts, arts and paintings, books and rare manuscripts, scientific instruments, sports equipment. Besides, festival football and cricket matches will also be played to mark the day. On this occasion all the departments, institute, halls, libraries, laboratories, cafeteria, grantha sangstha etc. will remain open to the visitors until afternoon on the day.

"Dhaka University Day" is observed every year with a view to acquainting guardians, former students and persons interested in education with the academic life and activities of the university and to establishing a bond between them and the university.