the budget of the institution.

In a joint statement issued yesterday they said the Senate was an important organ as per the Dhaka University Order of 1973 and it was the highest policy-making body of the university.

They said, last year the budget of the university was put into effect by sidetracking the Senate and its repetition would be deplorable and detrimental to autonomy of the university.

They said it had become urgent to call the Senate into session to work out some important statutes apart from the task of discussing the budget.

Signatories to the statement were Prof Emajuddin Ahmed, Prof Sirajul Islam Chowdhury, Prof Harun-or-Rashid, Prof Wakil Ahmed, Prof Moniruzzaman Mia, Prof Anwarullah Chowdhury, Prof SMA Fayez, Dr Nurun Nahar Rahman, Prof Shahiduddin Ahmed, Dr Humayun Ahmed and Prof Yusuf Haider.
