

DU student stabbed

A resident student of Shahidullah Hall of Dhaka University was stabbed during a clash that ensued between the supporters of belligerent factions of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) on Tuesday, reports UNB.

Witnesses said Alamgir Mahmud, President of Shahidullah Hall/unit of JCD, was stabbed on his body and was hit on the head just in front of the Political Science Department of the University at about 12.15 p.m.

He was given first aid at the Dhaka Medical College Hospital.