VC's call to resist campus violence

Staff Reporter

Dhaka University Vice-Chancellor Prof. Abdul Mannan has reiterated his call to all concerned for resisting campus violence in the greater interest of the nation.

Prof. Mannan was addressing an orientation programme of the freshers of the departments of management and Islamic studies as chief guest yesterday.

Saying that the DU belong to the people, Prof. Mannan added it was a responsibility of all to uphold the image of the university. He also called upon the student community to be more active against any kind
