

Shifting of DU exams refused: vehicles burnt

Staff Correspondent

Several private vehicles were damaged by some angry students at the Dhaka University area on Saturday. None was injured in the incident.

The second-year final examinees of the University brought out a procession in the Morning demanding shifting of their examinations. They went to the Vice-Chancellor and placed their demand. But following refusal of the University authorities, the students became angry and began to attack the vehicles playing in the University area. The examinees were all from Science Faculty, it is learnt.

152