Police raid two DU halls

By Staff Correspondent

Police raided two residential halls of Dhaka University early Wednesday and arrested four persons including a student and recovered ammunition.

Police raided the Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman hall and the Mohsin Hall following clashes between two rival student groups on the campus over the last few days.

A huge number of plain cloth and uniformed policemen searched the halls from 4.45 am to 6.30 am.

Of the arrested persons, M Shameem Ahmed was identified as a student of the university while another three M Anwar Hossain, Rafiqul Islam and Lutfar Rahman were said to be outsiders. All of them were arrested from Mohsin Hall.

During the raid, police recovered 16 bullets, four crackers and one toy pistol from Mohsin Hall.

According to police all the arrested persons were activists of Bangladesh Chhatra League (N-S) and involved in the recent gun battle on the campus.

They were brought to the Detective Branch of police for questioning.
