

Election for DU V-C panel today

Dhaka University Senate will elect a three-member Vice-Chancellor panel today (Wednesday) at 4 pm, reports UNB.

Ruling Awami League-backed "Blue" panel and pro-BNP "White" panel will contest the election which will be held in a Senate meeting with VC Shahiduddin Ahmed in the chair at the Senate office in the University.

See Page 12 Col. 2

Election

From Page 1 Col. 3

Administrative Building.

Among a total of 104 Senate members, 84 are expected to cast their votes in the election. Twenty senators will not be able to vote as 16 of them had lost their memberships and 4 are now abroad.

President Abdur Rahman Biswas, Chancellor of the university, will appoint one from the elected three members as VC according to his choice.

Campus sources said the 'Blue' has an absolute majority in the Senate. More than 46 senators belong to the 'Blue' panel.

Earlier, 'Blue' forum members had elected Prof AK Azad Chowdhury, ATM Zahurul Haque and Dr Shahadat Ali and 'White' members elected Prof Wakil Ahmed, Dr Mahmudul Amin and Dr Sultan Hosain as respective panel members in separate meetings.