Vice Chancellor of Dhaka University Prof. A. K. Azad Choudhury on Saturday called for reaching a consensus to maintain congenial atmosphere in all educational institutions including Dhaka University.

Prof. Azad was addressing a discussion meeting as the chief guest at the premises of the DUCSU Bhaban in the Dhaka University.

Organised on the occasion of the 'fall of autocracy and democracy day' the meeting was held under the auspices of the DUCSU.

Former VC of the Dhaka University Prof. Moniruzzaman Mian attended the meeting as special guest and inaugurated the photo exhibition on the university campus.

Prof. Azad Choudhury said the students of Dhaka

University had played pioneering role in all movements.

Prof. Moniruzzaman Mian said the students were always vocal against oppression and remained at the forefront in national movements.

BNP MP Nazimuddin Alam criticised the present government for rehabilitating the H.M. Ershad in the politics.

Among others the meeting was addressed by Khairul Kabir Khokon, General Secretary of DUCSU, Assistant General Secretary of DUCSU, Shahid Uddin Choudhury Anny, president of Jatiyatabadi Chhatradal and M. A. Jalil, a former student leader. Prof. M. Shamsul Huq, Treasurer and Dr. A. K. M. Nur-un-Nabi, proctor of DU also attended the meeting.
