Uneasy calm on DU campus

Staff Reporter

Uneasy calm prevailed on Dhaka University campus on Friday, following the killing of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) activist Arif Hussain Khan on Thursday morning in a factional fight.

A large number of police personnel were deployed at the different points of JCD dominated halls of the university.

Jasimuddin Hall unit of JCD brought out a procession and held a rally on the campus at 12 noon in protest against the killing of Arif.

Earlier, police recovered an abandoned toy walkie-talkie from a ditch near the Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman Hall.

Meanwhile five members of JCD, belonging to Aman-Ratan group, have been expelled from the organization for their anti-organizational activities. The expelled members are Manik, Bipu, Zaman, Mukit and Alam.

The decision was taken at an emergency meeting of JCD central committee held on Thursday night. JCD central committee President Shaheed Uddin Chowdhury was in the chair.

The first meeting of the probe committee, which was formed by DU authorities on Thursday night, to investigate into the killing of a student of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman Hall was held on Friday afternoon. Barrister Moinul Hossen, chairman of the committee, presided.

The committee reviewed the incident and asked all concerned to furnish information regarding the incident to Proctor Nur-Un-Nabi, Member-Secretary of the committee within March 17. The name of the person furnishing information will not be disclosed, it was declared.

President of Dhaka University Teachers' Association (DUTA) Prof Mostafa Chowdhury and Prof Aminul Islam who are also members of the committee were present at that time.

The committee members also visited Pangu Hospital after the meeting and interviewed a student admitted there after receiving bullet wounds in the incident.

The committee members will interview the Provost of
