

80 RU teachers lend support to agitating DU students

RAJSHAHI UNIVERSITY,
Jan 2: Eighty teachers of the Rajshahi University (RU) have expressed solidarity with the DU students agitating against alleged sexual harassment of some female students, reports APB.

In a statement today, they also expressed concern over what they described as "sex scandal" in the DU and condemned the attack on the agitating students who demanded exemplary punishment to the

See Page 12 Col 7

RU teachers

From Page 1

DU teachers responsible for the alleged abuse.

The RU teachers said that the Dhaka University authorities could not ignore their responsibility. They termed the incident as "shameful and disgraceful" for the university.

They also urged the teachers across the country to be 'vocal' against such crimes.

The signatories to the statement, among others, are: Hasan Azizul Haq, Zulfikar Matin, Arowar Jahan, Chitta Ranjan Misra, Habibur Rahman, Abdur Razzak, S Shahidullah, M Fayek Uzzaman, Martuza Khaled, Selim Reza Neuton, Quaberi Gayeen, Dulal Chandra Biswas and M Nasir Uddin.