

DU debate competition begins today

By DU Correspondent

The three-day "Dhaka University Inter Club Debate Competition '99" begins at the conference room of Business Studies Faculty this morning.

Barrister Mainul Hossain will be present as chief guest while Prof. Abbas Ali Khan, Chairman of the Management Department, will preside over the inaugural session.

Prof. Abul Hashem, Prof. Durgadas Bhattacharya and Prof. Abdul Mannan Chowdhury will be present as special guests.

The competition is organised by the Dhaka University Management Debating Club (DUMDC).

There will be three rounds — traditional debate, parliamentary debate and public debate.

A total of 16 debating clubs from different residential halls and departments will take part in the competition.
