Sexual harassment DU students stage sit-in in front of VC's office

By DU Correspondent

The students of the Dhaka University protesting alleged sexual harassment of some female students staged a sit-in demonstration in front of the Vice Chancellor's office yesterday to realise their six-point demand.

The students under the banner of "Students Protesting Sexual Harassment" (SPSH) also brought out a procession on the campus and held a rally in front of Aparajeo Bangla to press home their demands.

Later, the SPSH marched toward the VC office and held another rally there which was addressed by Ehsani Khanom, Farzana Rupa, Sultana Rahman, Taslima Akhter and Monirul Alam.

A delegation of SPSH also met the VC Prof A K Azad Chowdhury and urged him to accept their demands for an immediate solution to the crisis.
