DU student stabbed in Ziaur Rahman Hall

By DU Correspondent

A resident student of Ziaur Rahman Hall of Dhaka University was stabbed by a hall unit leader of pro-Awami League student organisation Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL), following a quarrel over gambling on Monday night, sources said.

The victim was identified as Saiful, resident of room No 428 and a masters student of Political Science department. He was a BCL activist, sources added.

According to the hall sources, Rizvi Alam, organising secretary of the BCL hall unit and a masters student of Library and Information Science beat him up severely before stabbing him with a sharp weapon.

Talking to Daily Star, Provost of the Hall, Dr Al Mahbub Uddin Ahmed said, "we inquired into this incident but found nothing and none has complained about the incident as yet."
