

237

DU to make documentary on its history

Dhaka University has taken up a project to make a documentary on its glorious history, reports UNB.

The project was inaugurated in a simple ceremony at the Vice Chancellor's office yesterday with recording the speech of VC Prof A K Azad Chowdhury.

While recording his speech, the VC narrated the glorious history of the university and the historical background of its inception.

Prof Golam Rahman, script advisory member and Professor of Mass Communication and Journalism Department, Syeda Firoja Begum, Associate Professor of Institute of Social Welfare and Research, and Syed Rezaur Rahman, Assistant Director of TSC and director of the project were present on the occasion.