Outsider arrested from DU hall

By DU Correspondent

An outsider was arrested from Shahidullah Hall of the Dhaka University late Thursday night during a raid after he had allegedly misbehaved with a house tutor of the hall.

Mizanur Rahman Bacchu, who has completed study from the university, recently misbehaved with the house tutor during the latter's visit to the hall, sources said.

Later, the house tutor complained it to the hall provost. Vice-chancellor Prof AK Azad Chowdhury ordered his arrest, sources said.

Hall sources preferring anonymity told The Daily Star that Mizan, an activist of a pro-Awami League Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) faction known as "Apu group", was illegally staying in the hall for some time.

A case has been filed in this connection with Ramna thana.

Mizan was produced before the CMM's Court yesterday and the court ordered that he be sent to the Dhaka Central Jail.
