

157

Rivals beat up BCL activist on DU campus

By DU Correspondent

An activist of ruling party-backed Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) sustained injuries as his rivals beat him up on the Dhaka University campus yesterday.

The victim was identified as Provat Kumar Vakta, a second year student of Political Science Department of DU and a resident of room no 220 of Jagannath Hall.

A campus source said a group of BCL activists led by Sanjoy, Shajeeb and Ripon swooped on Provat in front of Shamsunnahar Hall at about 11 am and beat him up mercilessly. The miscreants also stabbed on his back. Provat was admitted to a city clinic.

Sources in the BCL said that intra-party rivalry could be the reason behind the incident.