

78

Pry schools to remain open till Jan 14

The Primary Education Directorate yesterday asked the authorities concerned to keep all primary schools open till January 14 to continue free distribution of books among the students, reports BSS.

The distribution, which began across the country on January 3, will resume on January 25, an official handout said here yesterday.