

VC firm to free RU from session jam

Our Correspondent

RAJSHAHI, Nov 28:—The newly appointed Vice Chancellor of Rajshahi University Professor Dr Faisul Islam Faruqui, here on Wednesday vowed to free the university from session jam as early as possible.

Addressing a press conference held at the VC's lounge this afternoon the VC said that the university is facing an acute financial problem. The academic activities were being hampered due to the financial hardship.

He said he held separate meeting with the Provosts, Chairman of all departments and the concerned officials to remove the session jam.

Treasurer Prof. Osim Uddin Mondal, Registrar Prof. Abdus Salam, Prof. Nurul Absar and Prof. Shah Hasibur Rahman were also present on the occasion.