

15 JCD workers hurt in clash with police at RU

Our Correspondent

RAJSHAHI, July 24: At least 15 activist of Rajshahi University unit of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) were injured two of them seriously in a clash with police on the campus this noon.

Two students Milon (24) and Moti (20) were admitted to Rajshahi Medical College Hospital (RMCH).

RU sources said, the JCD activists were observing a sit-in demonstration at the main gate of RU administrative building as part of their today's strike programme. At one stage police asked them to leave the place but the JCD workers refused to leave the place that led to a clash between them. Police resorted to massive lathicharge on the students and dispersed them.

Meanwhile, the JCD workers called an indefinite strike on the campus from tomorrow (Wednesday) protesting against the police attack.
