Cheques of pvt edn instts salary handed over to banks

Cheques of this month salary, the government part, for the teachers and employees of the private educational institutions (School, College and Madrasa), SSC (Vocational), HSC (Business Management) and Madrasa (Vocational and Business Management) were handed over to banks on Monday, says BSS.

The cheques were sent to head offices of Agrani and Rupali Banks and local offices of Janata and Sonali banks, from where the salary could be withdrawn by the respective account numbers from March 2 to 9, an official handout said.

The teachers and employees who had failed to withdraw the government part of their salary including the festival allowances for June, 2007 to January 2008 could also withdraw that money during the period.
