

৪ 46 Report

UGC Chairman stresses on original data in compiling Annual report

UGC Chairman Professor Nazrul Islam said that the 'Annual Report' is an important document for all educational institutions. In this context, he stressed on original data in preparing a complete and appropriate report, says a Press release.

• He made the observation while speaking at the annual report compilation orientation workshop organized by the research and publication division UGC at its auditorium today as chief guest. Professor Dr. AHM Zehadul Karim, Member, UGC presided over the workshop while Professor Dr. Amena Begum, Member, UGC gave the address of welcome. K.M. Abdul Awwal (Acting Director) research and publication division presented the keynote paper on the occasion.

Professor Islam said, annual report could enrich appropriate data and statistics that can play a pivotal role in undertaking future action plan. He expressed his optimism to set up Higher Education Management Information System (HEMIS) at the UGC through the proposed World Bank Project.

Professor Dr. Tajul Islam, Member, UGC, Md. Lutfu Alam, Secretary, UGC and all divisional heads of the commission were present. Representatives from all public and private universities of the country participated at the workshop and expressed their valuable opinion.