

Thana Pry Education body reconstituted

The government has reconstituted the Thana Primary Education Committee with a view to making it more effective and fruitful, a government handout said Wednesday, reports BSS.

The member of parliament of the concerned thana has been included as the adviser in the committee, said the handout.

The committee whose term will be for three years will have a limited number of members recommended by the Deputy Commissioner and district level officials.

The Thana Nirbahi Officer and the Thana Education Officer have been made chairman and secretary respectively of the reconstituted committee.

Other members of the committee are Thana Health and Family Welfare Officer, Thana Engineer, a Union Parishad Chairman or Pourashava Commissioner nominated by the Deputy Commissioner, a Headmaster or Mistress of a High School nominated by the District Education Officer, woman educationist from the thana nominated by the D.C in consultation with the district women affairs officer, a person of the thana keen to work in the field of education who would be nominated by the D.C., president of a managing committee of a Government Primary School nominated by the D.C in consultation with the District Education Officer, head Master or Mistress of a Government Primary School and Head Master or Mistress of a private primary school registered with the government, both will be nominated by the D.C.

The District Primary Education Officer will issue the notification about the Constitution of the committee after all the nominations are completed.

The committee will play an important role in the spread and development of education as well as necessary development of the schools, said the handout.