

Call to make campus free from terrorism

Varsity Correspondent

The left-leaning Bangladesh Chhatra Union (BCU) formed a human chain on the Dhaka University campus demanding arrest of terrorists and recovery of arms from university dormitories.

BCU observed the programme as part of "Anti-Terrorism Fortnight" in front of the DU Arts Building. A large number of students, teachers and guardians expressed solidarity to the programme standing hand in hand.

The participants carried placards read "This campus is mine and I want to study", "No room for terrorists in my learning seat".

Professor of Economics MM Akash and Associate Professor of English Kajal Banarjee expressed their solidarity to the programme.

Former BCU President Hasan Tariq Chowdhury Sohel, a guardian Aslam Uddin, BCU president Sharifuzzaman Sharif, BCU leaders Raju Ahmed, Zakaria Mandal, Rumayan Hasan Riman and Nari Progoti leader Jahan-e-Gushan addressed at the human chain programme.
