

15 get Ekushey Award-2010

Fifteen personalities have been given the prestigious Ekushey Award-2010 for their outstanding contribution to art and culture, literature, education, journalism, research, fine arts, social work and the language movement, reports BSS.

According to a government announcement on Tuesday, each recipient will get Taka 1,00,000, a three-voisi gold medal and a citation.

The recipients are: Dr Golam Mawla (posthumously—Language Movement), poet Mohamunad Rafiq (Literature), Syed Ahmed (posthumously—Literature), Ms. Helena Khan (Literature), Dr Muntasir Uddin Khan Mamun (Muntasir Mamun) (research), ASHK Sadique (posthumously), Sangharaj Jyotipal Mohathero (posthumously) and A K M Hanif (Hanif Sangket) (social work), Partho Pratim Majumder (mime), Nasir Uddin Yusuf (drama), AKM Abdur Rouf (posthumously) and Imdad Hossain (artists), Ahmed Imtiaz Bulbul (composer), Begum Laila Hasan (dance) and photo journalist Mohamjad Alam (posthumously—journalism).