

JUN. 29 2002

SSC results to be published July 3

Secondary School Certificate (SSC) results of seven education board of the country is likely to be announced in the first week of July next.

This was told by Minister of State for Education ANM Eshanul Haque Milon to BSS on Friday.

He said, we have already fixed up July 3 to formally announce the SSC result after taking approval of the Prime Minister, Begum Khaleda Zia.

Meanwhile, the concern authority in principle has taken a decision to give grace number due to complicated examination in Mathematics at Dhaka Board. The State Minister said grace number will be given in two separate methods-one for those who will secure up to 50 marks and the other for those who will get above 50 marks.