HSC exam results likely to be announced Wednesday

Results of HSC examinations held this year under nine education boards of the country are likely to be announced Wednesday, reports UNB.

"The results of the HSC exams under seven general education boards besides Alim, Kamil and Fazil under Madrasa Education Board and HSC Vocational (Management) can be collected by respective centre secretaries from Deputy Commissioner offices at 4pm on the day," a competent source told UNB.

Earlier, chairmen of the boards will hand over the copies of the results to the Prime Minister.

More than seven lakh examinees sat for examinations held from May 16 to June 18 this year under the boards. Of them, 585,570 are HSC examinees, 28,000 HSC-level examinees under Vocational Education Board and one lakh examinees under Madrasa Education Board.

The results are going to be published within three months of the examinations.

This is for the last time that the HSC results would be declared in traditional form where merit list exists. From year next, HSC as well as Madrasa and Vocational exam results would be put in grade system, alike that of SSC.
