

০২ ২০/০৩/০৭

9th Edn. UK exhibition begins in Ctg

Chittagong Bureau
CHITTAGONG, Mar 5: - The 9th Education, UK Exhibition 2007 with the slogan - where inspiration begins - began this afternoon at Hotel Peninsula here in the port city. A good number of students from public and private universities including schools and colleges rushed the fair venue to gather information about higher education on the first day. The fair will also remain open for the visitors today (Tuesday) from 1:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.

British Council, with a view to provide a live opportunity for prospective students and their parents and teachers to find out more by talking directly to UK institutions and their representatives, will organize the two-day education fair. Delegates from 27 UK universities and colleges took part in the exhibition. Visa Services of British High Commission is also participating in the fair. The same fair, however, ended at Hotel Sheraton in the capital city couple of days back.