

৩৪ X ১৫০mm

2043 seats in honours classes lying vacant Out of 3750 seats only 1713 filled up in 4 Comilla govt colleges

From Our Correspondent

COMILLA, Sept 15:—A total of 2,043 seats are lying vacant in the honours classes for 2006-2007 sessions in four government colleges including Comilla Government Victoria College as the pass percentage of HSC examinations is decreasing gradually.

According to sources, a total of 3,750 seats for 24 subjects have been earmarked under the National University in four Government colleges in Comilla district, but only 1,707 students were admitted in four government colleges in last session 2006-2007. Not only that no student has been admitted in four subjects.

There are 2,890 seats for 18 subjects but only 1,529 students were admitted against those seats in 2006-2007 sessions in Comilla Government Victoria College.

The seats in Accountancy, Management and Chemistry out of 18 subjects filled up were. But the admission of 15 other subjects is not satisfactory. Only three students are admitted in General History subject as against 210 seats and eight students admitted against 160 seats of Logic subjects. There are 170 seats in Bengali department but 51 students are admitted, 156 admitted as against 170 seats in English department, 106 admitted as against 210 seats in Economics Department, 63 admitted as against 210 seats in Political Science Department.

Subject-wise vacant seats

In Social Science Department 131 students are admitted as against 140 seats, Islamic History Department only 28 students admitted against 210 seats, in Islamic Studies Department only 20 students admitted against 110 seats, 71 student admitted in Physics Department against 90 seats, 51 students admitted in Botany Department against 110 seats, 65 students admitted in Zoology Department against 110; only 21 students admitted in Statistics Department against 110 seats and in Mathematics Department 122 students admitted against 160 seats in Comilla Government Victoria College in 2006-2007 session.

A total of 116 students were admitted in three subjects out of four in Comilla Government College in 2005-2006 sessions and no student was admitted in Political Science Department against 50 seats, although the students of this college have fully been admitted in all 80 seats in Accountancy Department Eight students are admitted as against 50 seats in English Department and 28 students admitted in Management Department against 80 seats.

Only 31 students are admitted into Comilla Government College as against 510 seats in seven subjects out of nine, but no student is admitted in Mathematics Department where 50 seats are lying vacant and Logic Department (70).

Only three students are admitted in Political Science Department against 70 seats, six students against 50 seats in Bengali Department, 15 students as against 70 seats in Social Welfare Department, three students against 50 seats in Chemistry Department, only one candidate admitted against 50 seats in Physics Department, two students admitted as against 50 seats in Botany Department and one student admitted in Zoology Department against 50 seats.

A total of 31 students are admitted against 40 seats in Accountancy Department out of three in Laksam Foyzunnessa Government College in 2005-2006 sessions.

No students are admitted in 30 seats of Management Department and Zoology Department (20) seats.