

Prof Anwar

(From Page 1 Col. 8)

They had been held incommunicado since their arrest. Police produced them before the court of Magistrate Ahsan Kabir on Saturday afternoon and sought to take them on seven days' remand. But the court granted four-day remand against both the teachers and five-day remand against the JCD president.

Meanwhile, the whereabouts of the three teachers of Rajshahi University, also picked up late Thursday night from their residences, was not known yet.

The five university teachers were arrested a day after the government shut down sine die all the universities and colleges in six divisional cities following violent student movement Monday-Wednesday.

The student protests that led to the death of a rickshawpuller in Rajshahi on Wednesday prompted the government to impose indefinite curfew.

Supreme Court lawyer Mahbubey Alam represented the two Dhaka University professors with the support of approximately 50 other lawyers.

Advocate Sanaullah Miah pleaded for Helal. The police read out the allegations against him and sought a 10-day remand, but the court granted five days.

Helal was installed as president of the new JCD leadership, which was revamped by Tarique Rahman, BNP's senior joint secretary general who remains under detention on charges of corruption.

Helal faces allegations of creating panic in the public mind and obstructing traffic by setting tyres on fire in front of the Teacher-Student Centre, the vice chancellor's residence and F Rahman Hall.

Prof Anwar, Prof Harun taken on 4-day remand JCD chief remanded for 5-day

Prof. Anwar Hossain and Prof. Harun-or- Rashid of Dhaka University were produced in the CMM. pus turmoil, report news agencies. President of Jaiyatabadi Chhara Dal, the student wing of BNP.

In separate cases filed with Shahbagh police station under the emergency rules, police brought charges against the suspects of violating the rules, issuing provocative statements and instigating indiscipline "directly or indirectly".

Prof Anwar Hossain, general secretary of Dhaka University Teachers Association, and Dean of Social Science Faculty Prof Harun-or-Rashid were arrested by plainclothes men from their houses in Fuller Road after Thursday midnight.

JCD president Helal was held and run in from Maghbazar area on Friday morning, under a hunt following student rioting in and around the DU campus and backlashes at some other universities and colleges.

(See Page 11 Col.3)