

BCL activist stabbed in IU campus

JSHTIA, May 14:- A student of Islamic University was stabbed by a group of miscreants of Social Science Faculty on the university campus here this noon, the BSS.

The victim was identified as Sagor, an honours final year student of Public Administration Department of the university.

Campus sources said the miscreants attacked on Sagor at about 12.15 while returning home after giving his honours final examination.

Hearing the screaming of the victim, some other students rushed to the spot and sent him to the University Medical Centre in a critical condition.

Sagor was an activist of Bangladesh Chhatra League, Islamic University unit and was stabbed because of an earlier enmity, the police said.

In separate statements, leaders of Atiyatabadi Chhatr Dal and Islami Chhatra Shibir condemned the attack and demanded immediate arrest of the persons responsible for the stabbing.