

BUP gets new pro-VC

Staff Correspondent

JAHANGIRNAGAR University's public administration professor Abul Kashem Mazumder on Monday joined as a pro-vice-chancellor of Bangladesh University of Professionals, said a BUP press release.

President Abdul Hamid, also the chancellor of BUP, appointed Mazumder as a new pro-vice-chancellor of the university.

Mazumder was born at Kesharpar village of Senbagh upazila in Noakhali on November 1, 1954.

He was involved in teaching and research works at university level both in home and abroad for more than 30 years and his articles were published in international reputed research journals, the release said.

Before joining at BUP, Mazumder served as a member of Bangladesh Public Service Commission since 2014.
