

NSU celebrates silver jubilee

Staff Correspondent

NORTH South University celebrated the 25th anniversary of its founding with a three-day event on its campus in May 22-24, according to a press release.

The silver jubilee celebrations began on Monday with a rally, human national flag formation, launching of NSU's theme song and cultural performances by the university's Confucius Institute.

Information minister Hasanul Haq Inu attended a discussion as chief guest during the day's second session along with Gowher Rizvi, international affairs adviser to the prime minister, as guest of honour.

Celebrations on Tuesday included club activities and alumni events where 17 distinguished alumni were awarded. Nasrul Hamid, state minister for power, energy and mineral resources, was present as chief guest, said the release.

Commerce minister Tofail Ahmed attended the closing ceremony on Wednesday as chief guest. Discussions, honouring of distinguished individuals and dance performances were held on the day. Hos-sain Toufique Imam, political adviser to the prime minister, attended the event as guest of honour.
