

Class III students do not get books in Jessore

Our Correspondent · Jessore

STUDENTS of class III under Abhaynagar upazila in Jessore did not get books distributed by the government, on the first day of the book distribution festival.

Tapan Kumar Mondol, headmaster of the Uttar Deyapara Government Primary School under Abhaynagar upazila, confirmed the news and said the distribution of class III books may be delayed.

Aslam Hossain, president of the Nawapara Model Secondary School's managing committee, told New Age that books of textbook board were distributed among the students of all classes excepting that of class III.

Parents of class III students said their children came home empty-handed from the book festival.
