A STUDENT of Chittagong University of Engineering and Technology went missing in the Bay of Bengal at Sitakunda in Chittagong Tuesday afternoon.

The missing was Nakib Mohammad Khabbab, a fourth-year student of civil engineering department, university sources said.

Professor Md Moshikul Hoque, director of students' welfare at CUET, said that seven fourth-year students of the department had gone on a trip to Guliakhali sea beach under Sitakunda on Tuesday.

Md Jashim Uddin, deputy assistant director of Chittagong fire service and civil defence, said that the victim had gone to bathe in the sea around 3:00pm and was washed away at some point.

On information, a rescue team from the fire service rushed to the spot and began a rescue operation in the afternoon.
