

DU opens martyrs' monument

DU Correspondent

DHAKA University has unveiled a monument consisting names of all of its students, employees and teachers along with their family members, who were killed during the nine months of Liberation War in 1971.

The university's vice-chancellor Professor Akhtaruzzaman also inaugurated the beautification of arts faculty premises which have already completed with the help of ACI group.

The programme was held in front of the Arts Building at 4:00pm.

The monument, now open to public, will showcase the record of all the professors, officials, staff and other civilians who were killed inside the Dhaka University during 1971.

Among others, business faculty dean Shibli Rubayat Ul Islam, arts faculty dean Abu Mohammad Delwar Hossain and ACI limited chairman M Anis Ud Dowla were present.
