

SSC exam results today

Staff Correspondent

THE results of Secondary School Certificate and its equivalent examinations are scheduled to be published today.

Education minister Nurul Islam Nahid will formally hand over the results to prime minister Sheikh Hasina at 10:00am.

Later, he will announce the results at a briefing at the ministry at 12:30pm, said education ministry senior information officer Muhammad Afrazur Rahman.

Students can collect results afterwards from respective institutions, he said.

The examinees will get their results from the respective centres, websites of the respective boards and through SMS from 2:00pm, he said.

The results will also be available at www.education-boardresults.gov.bd.

This year, 17.86 lakh students - 9.10 lakh boys and 8.76 lakh girls, took the exams under ten education boards.

Of them, 14.25 lakh students took the SSC examination under eight general education boards. Some 2.56 lakh appeared in the Dakhil examinations while 1.04 lakh took in the SSC vocational examinations.

Exams of all subjects but Bangla second paper, English first and second papers were held with question papers in creative method. Written exams began on February 2 and concluded on March 4.

The combined pass percentage for SSC and equivalent examinations in 2016 was at 88.29 per cent and 109,761 students scored the highest grade point average of 5.
