BSMMU wall collapse kills woman

Staff Correspondent

A WOMAN was killed and five others were injured in Dhaka after a boundary wall of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujib Medical University collapsed Wednesday evening.

The deceased was identified as Parvin Akter. More details of the victim could not be known immediately.

BSMMU director (hospital) brigadier general Abdullah-Al-Harun said that Parvin and five others, including a nurse at the hospital and a police member, had been injured when a section of the boundary wall of the hospital's C-Block collapsed around 5:00pm while it was raining.

Parvin was admitted to BSMMU's intensive care unit in a critical condition where she succumbed to her injures later in the evening, added the director.
