of applied chemistry, at the university's Shahidullah Hall with electronic device on October 20.

Dhaka University Teachers Association president ASM Maksud Kamal, also a syndicate member, confirmed the news.

He said that further steps, probably expulsion of the accused students, might be taken after probe.

Earlier, BCL central committee expelled the two from the organisation following the allegation.

Question paper of the university's 'D' unit intake test was allegedly leaked few hours before the exam while 12 admission seekers were jailed by mobile court over fraudulence during the test on October 20.

Twenty-four of the leaked questions out of 25 in the English section were found to be similar to those in the question paper distributed in the examination.

Earlier on October 26 and 27, two BCL leaders were arrested for their involvement in Chittagong University admission test fraud.

Chittagong Metropolitan Police personnel held Shariful Islam alias Nazmul, an English department student and HM Ishtiaque Ahmed Sourabh, Chittagong University BCL assistant secretary and a student of marketing department, on allegation of admission test fraud.

CU authorities on Friday suspended Ishtiaque and Shariful.
