DU senate session for electing VC panel stayed

M Moneruzzaman

THE High Court Division on Monday stayed a Dhaka University senate's special session scheduled for July 29 for electing a three-member panel for choosing the next vice-chancellor by the president.

president.

A bench of Justice Tariq ul Hakim and Justice Md Faruque (M Faruque) also asked the DU authorities to explain why convening the senate session for electing the VC panel before electing 50 senate members to fill up as many vacancies in 105-Senate would not be declared illegal.
