

*admission tests
begin Dec 1*

United News of Bangladesh Islamic University

THE admission tests to first year honours courses of Islamic University in Kushtia under the academic session 2017-18 will begin on December 1. The admission tests will be held in four shifts on each day, said university registrar office sources on Tuesday. A total of 87,388 applicants will contest against 2,275 seats this year. Detailed information regarding the tests will be available on the university website: www.iu.ac.bd.