Comilla Medical College authorities on Wednesday expelled 26 activists of Bangladesh Chattra League on different terms from the college for their involvement in clashes between two groups of the organisation.

The authorities also banned political and social activities on the campus for an indefinite period.

‘The decisions were made in an academic council meeting as per the recommendation of an investigation committee on the January 4 incident,’ said the college principal, Md Mohsin-uz-Zaman.

He said that the students were expelled from both the academic activities and from the halls.

Three students were expelled for three years, nine for two years and the other 14 for a year, he added.

Those who were expelled for three years are MBBS fifth year students Hasibul Huq Arnab and Sheikh Asif Mahmud, and third year student Jawat Arraj.

The students expelled for two years are MBBS fifth year students Kazi Jewel, Iftekhar Hasan, Rabbi

Hossain, Palash Sarkar and Riyad Hossain and second year students Piyal Dev Chowdhury, Faisal

Amin, Nitai Chandra Sutradhatr and Jaydeep Chowdhury.

Those who were expelled for one year are MBBS fifth year students — Dipta Dutta, Swapan Kanti Das, Ariful Islam, Sabbir Mahmud, Mahir

Hossain, Mizanur Rahman and Tanvir Zaman, fourth year students Shakhawat Hossain and Soumitra Acharjee, third year student Shah

Muhammad Najmus Sakib, Debjit Ghosh, Mashrukh Arafat Risan and Raihanuzzaman and second year student Yahiya Mahmud.

Followers of former college BCL president Abdul Hannan and former president Habibur Rahman Palash locked in a clash on January 4 night when 12 students of both the groups were injured, said college officials.

A probe committee was formed on the following day.
