

SHUST receives approval to conduct educational programmes

Staff Correspondent 26 May, 2024, 01:14

Share

Tweet

Email

Share

Share

Sheikh Hasina University of Science and Technology organises a reception programme for successful students of HSC or equivalent exam 2023 and SSC or equivalent exam 2024 on Saturday. | Press release

Premier Group and Premier Bank Foundation, founded by HBM Iqbal, recently received approval to conduct educational programmes at Sheikh Hasina University of Science and Technology in Bashgari, Kishoreganj, said a press release.

The university organised a reception programme and live concert for successful students of HSC or equivalent exam 2023 and SSC or equivalent exam 2024. HBM Iqbal is the founding chairman of the university, which has started the admission process for the summer session on Saturday.

HBM Lutfur Rahman, trustee board member, Sheikh Hasina University of Science & Technology attended the programme as chief guest.

HBM Shoave Rahman, trustee board member, Sheikh Hasina University of Science & Technology attended as special guest along with Syed Nowsher Ali, (current charge) managing director and CEO, The Premier Bank PLC; Nasim Sekandar, additional managing director of the bank; Niamat Uddin Ahmed, deputy managing director of the bank; Mohammad Golam Hossain Sarkar, (PSC), Brigadier General (Retd.) and advisor to Z. Rahman Premier Bank School & College; Iftekhar Hossain Benu, mayor of Bhairab municipality; Abdus Salam Shahriar, chairman, Gajaria union;. Emdadul Islam, advisor to Sheikh Hasina University of Science and Technology and researcher at Sasakawa Peace Foundation, Japan; Bijon Kumar Mitra, deputy managing director, Institute of Global Environmental Strategies, Japan; Professor Kozo Watanabe, Ehime University, Japan; Professor Anwar Hossain, Dhaka University, EHIME University and proposed vice-chancellor at Sheikh Hasina University of Science & Technology; Professor Profullo Chandra Sarkar, advisor Sheikh Hasina University of Science and Technology; Tareq Uddin, EVP and head of brand marketing and communications, The Premier Bank PLC, and others.

The Dr Iqbal Education World, which is situated on 300 acres of land, will host Sheikh Hasina University of Science and Technology along with Medical College and Hospital, Polytechnic Institute, Engineering Degree College, Nursing Degree College and Sports Academy.

Z Rahman Premier Bank School and College has already been established there along with a branch of Premier Bank PLC.