

NSU holds seminar on Sheikh Mujib, Sheikh Hasina

Staff Correspondent  11 June, 2024, 23:50

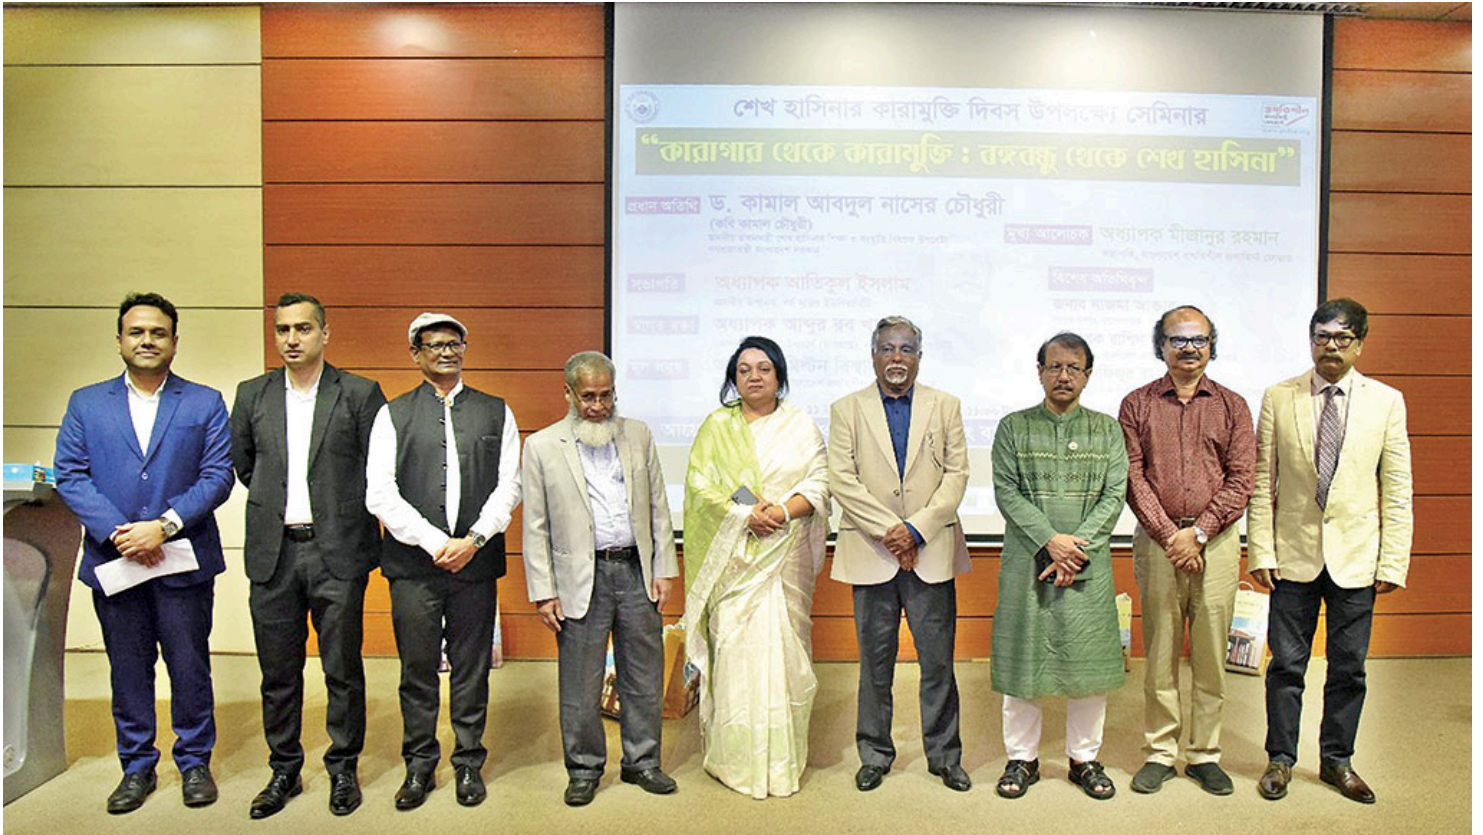

Share

Tweet

Email

Share

Share

Guests and speakers pose for photos at a seminar on Sheikh Mujibur Rahman and Sheikh Hasina on North South University campus in Dhaka on Tuesday. | Press release

North South University and Progressive Columnist Forum of Bangladesh jointly organised a seminar titled 'From prison to release: Bangabandhu to Sheikh Hasina', marking prison release day of prime minister Sheikh Hasina on Tuesday.

Kamal Abdul Naser Chowdhury, education and cultural affairs adviser to the PM, was present as chief guest and professor Mizanur Rahman, president of Bangladesh Progressive Columnist Forum was chief discussant, said a press release.

Lawmaker Nazma Akhter, professor Rashid Askari, vice president of Bangladesh Progressive Columnist Forum, and Md Afizur Rahman, executive director of Dainik Bangla, and Newsbangla24 were present as special guests.

General secretary of Bangladesh Progressive Columnist Forum professor Milton Biswas presented the keynote paper at the seminar. NSU vice-chancellor professor Atiquil Islam presided over the programme. Professor Abdur Rob Khan, treasurer and pro-vice-chancellor (acting) of NSU, delivered welcome address.

Asif Bin Ali, lecturer at the media, communication and journalism programme and director of the public relations office of NSU, conducted the event.