

HSC exam held at N'ganj Mahila College

Higher Secondary Certificate examinations at Narayanganj Tolaram College centre where students and police clashed on Monday could not be held on Tuesday. Controller of Examinations, Dacca Intermediates and Secondary Education Board said, reports ENA.

He told ENA when contacted that examinations scheduled for Tuesday were, however, held at Narayanganj Mahila College centre. Examinations were abandoned in that centre as well on Monday as a result of student-police clash.

The Controller of Examinations said that decision regarding the examinations of Tolaram College centre will be decided at a meeting of the examination committee within day or two.

Meanwhile, Dacca Medical College Hospital sources said three of the six injured in Monday's incident at Narayanganj had been shifted to the Suhrawardy Hospital in view of the nurses strike in the Medical College Hospital. Condition of the remaining three persons was improving, the sources added.

Police Hospital sources said condition of six policemen out of 10 admitted there with acid burns were still serious. P.G. Hospital sources said of the two persons admitted there with bullet wounds one was still in the hospital his condition is improving.
