Production-oriented education stressed

Education Minister Barrister Jamiruddin Sircar Tuesday said the present democratic government was firm to establish rule of law for consolidating the process of democracy in the country, reports BSS.

He said the government would not allow anyone to take law into their hands to create disorder.

The Education Minister was addressing as chief guest the installation ceremony of the Central Students Union of Dhaka Polytechnic Institute in Dhaka.

State Minister for Textile Major (Retd) M A Mannan, State Minister for Establishment Nurul Huda, State Minister for Shipping Haroon Al-Rashid, DUCSU VP Amanullah Aman, MP, President of city JCD Abul Khair Bhuiyan, Secretary Nasiruddin Pintu, Vice President of the Students Union Ahmad Reza Khan, Secretary Shakil Mahmood and A G S Mahbul Islam also spoke on the occasion.

The Education Minister said the present government was taking steps to restore academic atmosphere and check violence in the campus. He said the government would introduce a production-oriented education system for materialising the hopes and aspirations of the common people.

He said the Polytechnic Institutes would be provided with all possible modern educational equipment.
