

212

Students urged to create social movement in resisting terrorism

NARAYANGANJ, Nov 27 (BSS): Home Minister Abdul Matin Chowdhury today called upon the student community to help continue present congenial atmosphere on the campus.

He urged them to create a social movement in resisting terrorism and anarchy in the society.

The minister was addressing a fresher's reception and prize giving ceremony of Narayanganj-Dhaka university bus route organisation 'Ananda' at Shahed Zia hall in Narayanganj, this afternoon.

Mr Matin Chowdhury said democratic government with the help of mass people already created a momentum in the field of sustain economic development. He said some vested quarters were hatching conspiracy to foil hard earned democracy and pace of development. He urged all to be very vigilant against any sorts of anti-people activities.

Lauding the role of student community in uprooting autocratic rule, the minister said now is the time for building the nation. He said, present government was determined to build the nation and fulfil its pre-election commitment.

Referring to the government planning in expanding education, he said, government will set-up 9000 schools within next three years. He said step has been taken to set-up a private university in Narayanganj.

Later, Home Minister distributed prizes among the winners of indoor games and received fresher's student of Dhaka university, who are the commuters of the bus route organisation "Ananda".

Presided over by the president of 'ananda' Iqbal Pasha, the function was addressed, among others, by the chairman of public service commission Yazuddin Ahmed as special guest.

Prof Rezaul Karim MP, Begum Shamsunnahar Khwaja Ahasn Ullah MP, DUCSU general secretary Khairul Kabir Khokon, Transport Secretary Jahangir Alam and literature secretary Milon Mehdi were present.