

Help remove illiteracy

Kazi Anwarul Haq, Minister for Civil Aviation and Tourism on Saturday called upon the well-to-do people to help their less fortunate brethren in the society by removing illiteracy and catering to their other needs, reports BSS.

The progress of the society could be ensured by mutual help and co-operation of the people among themselves and fulfilment of social obligation by each one of us in the society, he said adding nothing tangible could be achieved by depending society on the Government.

The Minister was inaugurating a week-long eye camp organised jointly by Water Development Mohila Kalyan Samity and Dacca Presidency Lions Club at Jatrabari Water Development Board Staff Quarter.

The inaugural function was also addressed by Lt. Commander (Retd.) A. M. L. K. Siddiqui, President, Dacca Presidency Lions Club and Mrs. Salma Rahman, President of the Sa-
