

তারিখ ... 7.2.80
পৃষ্ঠা ... 7 ... কলাম ... 7 ...

Literary confce Foundation opens in Khulna stone of school March 7 building laid

105

From Our Correspondent

DAULATPUR, Feb. 6.—The three-day Sundarban Sahitya Sammelan will be held at Khulna from March 7 to March 9 under the auspices of Khulna Academy. Prominent litterateurs from different parts of the country will participate in this function.

Dr. Abdullah Al-Muti Sharfuddin, Mr. Atoar Rahman, Mrs. Jobeda Khanam, Mr. Rokanuzza-man Khan (Dada Bhai), Mr. Al-Kamal Abdul Wahab, Poet Kader Newaz, Poet Talim Hus-sain, Poet Al-Mahmud, Prof. Shahed Ali, Mrs. Razia Majid, Prof. Sunil Kumar Mukherjee, Mr. Anis Siddiqui, Mr. Asof-uddowia Reza, Dr. Ashraf Siddi-qui and Mr. Maruha Chowdhury are expected to attend the function.

The members of Khalishpur Udayan Club, a socio-cultural organisation under Daulatpur Police station volunteered their labour to reconstruct two katcha roads.

The earth work done by the young enthusiastic workers were discussed in a meeting held recently. Speakers at the meeting highly praised their enterprising spirit.

From Our Correspondent

SRIMANGAL, Feb. 6.—The Foundation stone laying ceremony of the one-storied building of the Buds Residential Model School was held at the school ground near Srimangal College recently.

Mr. N. K. Chowdhury, Superintendent, James Finlay and Company (Tea Division), Balisera laid the foundation stone of the building.

Taka 15 lakh is the estimated budget for the construction of School building, Hostel, boundary wall etc. which will have an accommodation capacity for 600 students with all modern amenities.

Bangladesh Cha Sangsad has sanctioned Taka three lakh and The Baraora Tea Company has donated two acres of land for the school building.

The foundation laying ceremony was followed by a Tea Party.