

Vocational institute for teachers soon

RANGAMATI, Sept. 30: A training centre for teachers of rural vocational institute may be set up here soon, reports BSS.

A five-member team of the Asian Development Bank recently visited a possible site here for the proposed centre.

The centre when set up will have training facilities for trades, including handicraft. This will be the first of its kind in the country.