

BCL leader shot dead in Chittagong

Chittagong Bureau

CHITTAGONG, Jan. 29:—A Chhatra League leader was shot dead by some assailants at Kazem Ali Road in front of his own home-Lucky Mansion of Kotwali thana on Monday night.

According to Kotwali thana, the dead was identified as Ripon Mallick (22), General Secretary of the Islamia College Chhatra Sangsad. The victim Ripon Mallick was released from Chittagong jail on bail about one month ago.

The police sources said that Chhatra League leader Ripon Mallick, a student of 3rd year was quarrelling with his friends and followers for a considerable time. That could have reason behind the killing.

He quarreled with his five friends over the distribution of booty at about 11 at night. When he came in front of his house 'Lucky Mansion' he was shot to death. The assailants fled away quickly leaving the body.
